STARRY SUMMER NIGHTS

May 2024

Summer is here and tonight the heat is still spreading over the dry valley. For the very first time, the cubs are going to camp out on their own. Daddy Bear has given them a mission: to count the stars.

Lying on the grass, they observe the sky, but thunder rumbles. Everyone heads for shelter: the badger in his burrow, the owl in the hollow of a tree trunk and, when the rain pours down, the bat welcomes them into his cave.

Finally, the clouds disappear and the stars come out. The cubs count a thousand of them... and one that they will collect and give to Daddy Bear.

Zemanel is also the author of Le Premier Oeuf de Pâques, Les Quatre Géants, and many other great Classics published by Père Castor. His stories have been translated into 8 languages!

April 2024

Mia and Pablo are on holiday with Grandma.

The two cousins decide to build a tree house just for them under the cherry tree in the garden. And they decorate it beautifully! How pretty their tree house is!

Soon, ants, a hen and a cat invited themselves into the tree house. So Mia and Pablo built a wall, a fence and a palisade to keep them out.

Now the tree house doesn't look like anything much. Mamie explains to the cousins that all these animals had their habits under the cherry tree long before they arrived; but perhaps they will agree to share this wonderful place?

A childhood story enhanced by tender, gentle illustrations.
Themes of sharing and openness to others.

EUSTACHE & RAOUL

By Anne-Marie Chapouton & Rosalinde Bonnet

When the discovery of friendship makes the world a sweeter place!

FRIENDSHIP - ADVENTURE - NATURE - LIFE'S PLEASURES

Eustache the cat goes off to see the world.

Poof! Boum Boum! Eustache discovers the cold of the wind, the warmth of the sun, the sound of bees and the sweet smell of flowers.

Then suddenly: Ouch! Ouch! Ouch! Eustache encounters something sharp: Raoul the hedgehog.

Together, they continue their journey of discovery. A changing world in which it's good to be alive when you're not alone!

STORY OF THE MOLE AND THE HASTY HARE

By Sylvie Fournout & Rosalinde Bonnet

A sweet and tender tale about taking your time...
A hymn to slow life!

FRIENDSHIP - NATURE - TIME - HAPPINESS

Will-o'-wisp is frolicking in the meadows. Surprised by a storm, he takes shelter in a cave. He is soon joined by a tiny mole. When the sun comes out again, Will-o'-wisp decides to walk his new friend home, as she can't see very well. Curious, the mole asks lots of questions: what is a frog like? what about grass? and trees?

Will-o'-wisp, who is always running around, doesn't know how to answer. So he stops off with his new friend and together they observe and discover nature.

On the way home that evening, Will-o'-wisp doesn't run – he takes his time.

« Welcome to Paris!

I'm Loulou, the concierge's cat. I like to wander from one floor to another to say hello to my neighbours and see what is going on. Would you like to meet them? Then follow me! »

Curious and observant, Loulou the cat takes us with him on a tour of the building to meet its inhabitants who come and go, and live beautiful stories as seasons pass.

A beautiful large-format picture book with illustrations full of details that will delight curious children!

CLOVIS & OUPS

By Aurélie Valognes & François Ravard

“My name is Clovis, I am seven years old, and my absolute favourite thing in life is going to Grandma and Grandpa’s, they have a little house next to the seaside, and it’s great! They let me do all the things that are forbidden at home – which is A LOT of things. But the best thing about them is their dog. I just love him! He’s always causing little disasters. His name is Oups, you can guess why...”

VOL. 1: MY RUNNING-AWAY JOURNAL

Like all 10-year-old boys, Gaspard wants his parents to think he's grown up. But they have decided to force him to choose his future school. So Gaspard decides to run away!

But running away takes planning... What should he eat? What if he meets bears or wolves? It's all getting very complicated...

VOL. 2: MY GREAT LOVE STORY JOURNAL

Gaspard discovers what it means to be in love when the new girl, Julia, walks into his class.

He refuses to look like the idiot his friend Igor looked when he fell in love with a girl last summer, and to be called by an equally idiotic nickname.

But how do you stop being in love?

VOL. 3: MY PROTEST JOURNAL

Gaspard learns that the vacant lot where he plays every week is to be turned into a supermarket. Although everyone seems quite alright with the situation, Gaspard has no intention of letting it happen.

His secret diary becomes a tactical notebook to organize resistance: Gaspard and his friends are going to do everything in their power to save their playground. Because being only 10 years old doesn't mean you can't stand up for your ideas!

VOL. 1: THE CHILDREN OF THE LEGEND

March 2022

While revolution is rumbling all over Eastern Europe, five children with nothing in common are brought together by circumstances and must escape from many enemies: Ukrainian criminals, a secret police and a tyrannical Ataman who dreams of restoring a lost kingdom... Maldoror.

Maldoror is the story of a forgotten legend, of territories to be conquered and of upheavals to come. It is also the story of friendship between five children, and their mysterious link to a wonderful lost world.

VOL. 2: THE FAWN PRINCE

October 2022

The Children of the Legend leave the cold plains of Siberia and find themselves in Vienna where many threats continue to weigh on them.

Separated from her friends, Anja returns to her former life and takes part in a prestigious violin competition, which allows her to study her passion in Paris.

Meanwhile, Piotr, Jørn, Pepina and Tchavolo seek to learn more about the legend of Maldoror and join Anja in the City of Light in search of the truth.

VOL. 3: OTHERNIGHT
